Kaiser Foundation Health Plan Arbitration Agreement:

Check if NOT enrolling in Kaiser

I understand that (except for Small Claims Court cases, claims subject to a Medicare appeals procedure, and, if my Group must comply with ERISA, certain benefit-related disputes) any dispute between myself, my heirs or other associated parties on the one hand and Health Plan, its health care providers, or other associated parties on the other hand, for alleged violation of any duty arising out of or related to membership in Health Plan, including any claim for medical or hospital malpractice, for premises liability, or relating to the coverage for, or delivery of, services or items, irrespective of legal theory, must be decided by binding arbitration under California law and not by lawsuit or resort to court process, except as applicable law provides for judicial review of arbitration proceedings. I agree to give up my right to a jury trial and accept the use of binding arbitration. I understand that the full arbitration provision is contained in the Evidence of Coverage.

Check if NOT enrolling in Coresource

I attest by signing below that I have reviewed the information provided on this application and to the best of my knowledge and belief; it is true and accurate with no omissions or misstatements.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT: If your coverage is under a private employer plan governed by ERISA (Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974), certain disputes may not be subject to the following arbitration provisions:

I understand that any and all disputes between myself (and/or any enrolled family member) and CoreSource for medical malpractice, must be resolved by binding arbitration, if the amount in dispute exceeds the jurisdictional limit of the Small Claims Court, and not by lawsuit or resort to court process, except as California law provides for judicial review of arbitration proceedings. Under this coverage, both the member and CoreSource are giving up the right to have any dispute decided in a court of law before a jury. CoreSource and the member also agree to give up any right to pursue on a class basis any claim or controversy against the other. For more information regarding binding arbitration, please refer to your Evidence of Coverage/Certificate.

If I am enrolled in an employer-sponsored benefit plan that is subject to ERISA (Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. section 1001, et seq.) However, I further understand that any dispute I may have with respect to an adverse benefit determination for a health claim may be submitted to voluntary binding arbitration after the ERISA claim appeal process is completed.

FAQ - Benefits and What to Expect After Enrollment

When will my coverage become effective?

If you are a new employee or have had a HIPAA qualifying event your coverage will become effective the first day of the month following your date of hire or the first day of the month following your qualifying event. If you are a current employee who has changed benefit options during open enrollment, your effective date will be January 1st.

When will I receive my ID card?

Your Delta Dental ID card must be downloaded from the Delta Dental website. Your Kaiser, CoreSource and United Health Care Dental ID card will be issued within 7 to 10 business days from when Peralta processes your form.

How do I independently verify my enrollment and coverage?

To verify your enrollment and applicable coverage for you and your eligible dependents

- call the insurance carrier
- visit the website of the carrier you have selected

Refer to the EMPLOYEE BENEFITS with your enrollment packet from the PCCD Benefits Office.

What is an HMO? (Kaiser)

A health maintenance organization (HMO) is a type of managed care organization (MCO) that provides a form of health care coverage that is fulfilled through hospitals, doctors, and other providers with which the HMO has a contract. Unlike traditional indemnity insurance, an HMO covers only care rendered by those doctors and other professionals who have agreed to treat patients in accordance with the HMO's guidelines and restrictions in exchange for a steady stream of customers.

What is a PPO? (CoreSource)

A PPO is a group of hospitals and physicians that contract on a fee-for-service basis with insurance companies to provide comprehensive medical service. If you have a PPO, your out-of-pocket costs may be lower in a PPO than in a non-PPO plan.

What is a Deductible?

A deductible is the amount of money you or your dependents must pay toward a health claim before your organization's health plan makes any payments for health care services rendered. For example, a plan participant with a $100 deductible would be required to pay the first $100, in total, of any claims during a plan year.

What is Coinsurance?

Coinsurance is a provision in your health plan that describes the percentage of a medical bill that you must pay and that which the health plan must pay.

What is Out-Of-Pocket Maximum?

The maximum amount (deductible and coinsurance) that an insured will have to pay for covered expenses under a plan. Once the out of pocket maximum is reached the plan will cover eligible expenses at 100%.

What is an Explanation of Benefits (EOB)?

An EOB is a description your insurance carrier sends to you explaining the health care benefits that you received and the services for which your health care provider has requested payment.

What is a Pre-Existing Condition?

A pre-existing condition is a physical or mental condition that existed prior to being covered on a health benefit plan. Some insurance policies and health plans exclude coverage for pre-existing conditions. For example, your health plan may not pay for treatment related to a pre-existing condition for one year. You should check with your insurance carrier to learn how your organization's health plan treats pre-existing conditions

What is Utilization Management (UM)?

UM is the process of reviewing the appropriateness and the quality of care provided to patients. UM may occur before (pre-certification), during (concurrent) or after (retrospective) medical services are rendered. For example, your health plan may require you to seek prior authorization from your utilization management company before admitting you to a hospital for non-emergency care. This would be an example of pre-certification. Your medical care provider and a medical professional at the UM company will discuss what is the best course of treatment for you before care is delivered.
