Universal Learning/Assistive Technology - It's a critical time to explore new teaching and learning methods. Come learn how we've adapted assistive technology to support both teachers and students in a user friendly and dynamic way. See how assistive technology can help you fill gaps with struggling students. Come experience our technology and support network, and see if you'd like to participate in this Spring's pilot program! Facilitator: Stacey Kayden. 1-2pm, E-261

Assessing & Documenting ILO#4: Global Awareness, Ethics and Civic Responsibility--"Students will be prepared to practice community engagement that addresses one or more of the following: environmental responsibility, social justice and cultural diversity." All are welcome, particularly those faculty who teach courses in the GE and IGETC programs. We will discuss use of a common rubric for spring 2019 assessment of this ILO. Facilitators: Heather Sisneros & Rebecca Bailey. 1-2 & 2-3, G-203 (desktop computer lab)

Social Sciences cluster meeting: 2-3pm, F-201

Program Review Assistance - Here is your chance not only to get information on program review but actually COMPLETE it. Please join our Faculty Senate President Bourgoin along with VPI Besikof, who will walk you through your review and assist you. The session will be in a computer lab, meaning that you will actually have an opportunity to complete this vital task onsite and take it off your plate before the semester begins! Facilitators: Fred Bourgoin & VPI Rudy Besikof. 2-4pm, G-205

Using the Equity Rubric to Support Inclusivity and Equity - Please join us in a discussion about the Equity Rubric and how to apply it, including how to build or revise learning activities and assignments that create inclusive classes and support equitable outcomes. * Open and relevant to instructors of ALL CLASS FORMATS -- not just Distance Ed! - Facilitators: Inger Stark & Chelsea Cohen. 2-3pm, F-202

Office 365, Turnitin - Open session on Tech topics like Office 365 apps, OnePeralta, or how to integrate Turnitin with Canvas. Facilitator: Rupinder Bhatia. 2-3pm, F-170C

The Life-Changing Magic of Tidying Up: Curriculum Edition - Are you working on your APR or CPR and want to get started on the curriculum portion? Do you have curriculum that is outdated, old, and musty? Come meet with curriculum folks. We will help you spark joy into your curriculum and make it neat and tidy. Bring a laptop or a flash drive with work that you want to add to meta. Never been on meta? We can help with that too! Facilitator: Pinar Alscher. 2-3 & 3-4pm, G-205 (desktop computer lab)

Trauma-Informed Teaching & Service - We will talk about how trauma can show up in the classroom and share some practices to manage in a supportive and empowering way for students. We will explain how this has come up for us in ESL, and expand to how it can apply to other disciplines and learning spaces. Facilitators: Laura Espino and Christina Yanuaria. 3-4pm, G-207

Smart Classroom training - Learn how to teach using the new A/V features in your Smart Classroom. Many new classrooms were updated during Winter break! Facilitator: Laney IT Team. 3-4pm, G-206

Documentary Film Screening & Discussion: Talking Black in America (Details forthcoming)

Our keynote speaker, Dr. Robert Teranishi is a Professor of Social Science and Comparative Education, the Morgan and Helen Chu Endowed Chair in Asian American Studies, and co-director for the Institute for Immigration, Globalization and Education at UCLA. His research is broadly focused on race, ethnicity, and the stratification of college opportunity. His work has been influential to federal, state, and institution policy related to college access and affordability. He has provided congressional testimony regarding the Higher Education Reauthorization Act and No Child Left Behind, informed state policy decisions related to selective college admissions, and his research has been solicited to inform U.S. Supreme Court decisions on affirmative action and school desegregation. Prior to his appointment at UCLA, he served as a professor at New York University and the University of Pennsylvania. Recently, President Obama appointed Dr. Teranishi as a member on the Board of Directors of the National Board for Education Services.
