

"PCCD Definition of Technology"

Any device that is intended to connect to the network and for which staff is required to install, maintain and operate said devices as it applies to the use of computer and/or telecommunication equipment in order to retrieve, store, transmit, process, maintain, or manipulate data.