

DISTRICT FLEX DAY

August 13, 2014

Odell Johnson Theater, Laney College

9:00am – 3:00pm

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Deborah Pruitt

A New Paradigm for Collaboration, Accountability and Respect

The key to expanding student success and community impact is an institutional culture that generates deep learning and radical accountability. This talk presents a proven model for building that culture authentically, based on principles from anthropology and organizational development for social change. Discover how you can be a factor in breaking through old, limiting patterns to create new habits that connect diverse talents in a creative alchemy so everyone can thrive.

Author of the award winning book, Group Alchemy: This Six Elements of Highly Successful Collaboration, Deborah Pruitt, Ph.D. has made it her life's work to help people committed to making a positive difference increase their impact and build more enriching ways of working together. Deborah founded Group Alchemy Consulting to offer a leadership alternative to conventional management philosophies through practical strategies for creating an authentic culture of collaboration.
